1. Maximum charge is the full cost of your monthly internet service. It does not include any additional fees outlined in the billing section of your plan's Critical Information Summary for non-payment of your monthly invoice or for service extras.

2. This is the monthly discount amount and duration that you will receive from the nbn® New Development Offer promotion. If you change your plan the offer will change depending on the current offers available for your new plan and any other eligibility requirements.

Requirements:

- If an installation appointment is required, someone over the age of 18 must be home during the appointment window.
- If required, the Network Termination Device (NTD) will only be installed in a suitable location based on guidelines listed in the nbn FTTP installation guide nbnco.com.au/residential/upgrades/more-fibre/step-by-step-guide.
- A New Development Charge (NDC) may apply when connecting a location to the nbn® network for the first time. More information about NDCs is available in the Critical Information Summary (CIS) and at leaptel.com.au/new-development-charges.
